

Study Day – a Quaker view towards a new economy

At Lewes Meeting House on Saturday, 10th February 2018

Please prepare for the day by reading Principles for a new economy (copies available from your Meeting clerk or correspondent).

10:00 Arrivals and refreshments

10:20 Silent Worship

10:40 Welcome and introduction

10:45 Session 1: What is the New Economy?

- A quick review of the document Principles for a new economy
- Plenary session – What do you think is wrong with the economy at present?
- Group discussions on three aspects; plenary to share ideas from each group.

11:45 Short shuffle break

11:50 Session 2: Do you see any political opportunities to help build an economy based on Quaker principles?

- 3 case studies
- Questions and feedback

13:00 Lunch – please bring a picnic lunch

14:00 Session 3: Where do we go from here?

Group discussion on:

- What are our priorities for progress?
- What are the possibilities for further action?

Plenary session to share ideas –

Leading to a closing minute, silent worship and notices

15:30 Tea and departures at 16:00

Please see www.lewesquakers.org.uk for directions

Parking is limited, public transport or car sharing is recommended.

If you are a blue badge holder, please contact Nancy Wall at quakerclerkslewes@gmail.com

If you are not a blue badge holder but have mobility problems, contact Nancy as above.